

Sample Social Posts

Help spread the word about the Dallas County Promise using the social media posts below:

Tweet Ideas

- We're bringing #TuitionFreeCommunityCollege to life with the Dallas County Promise! Read more at dallascountypromise.org
- You: Dallas County student at a participating high school.
Us: want you to succeed through the power of education.
Find out if you qualify: dallascountypromise.org
- Have you taken the Promise Pledge? You can attend DCCCD tuition-free for up to three years or until degree completion through the Dallas County Promise. Find out more: dallascountypromise.org
- DID YOU KNOW: 65% of living wage jobs require education beyond high school. Take the Promise Pledge to get your associate degree @ dallascountypromise.org
- DID YOU KNOW: Promise Scholars can take advantage of partnerships with @UNTDallas and @SMU to potentially finish a tuition-free bachelor's! More: dallascountypromise.org

Facebook Ideas

- We're bringing tuition-free community college to life through the Dallas County Promise! Seniors at participating Dallas County high schools who take the Promise Pledge by the deadline will get tuition for up to three years or degree completion covered at the colleges of DCCCD. Find out more at dallascountypromise.org.
- Dallas County Promise Scholars will work with a Success Coach every step of the way, starting during their senior year of high school and continuing throughout their college career. If you attend a participating Dallas County high school, take the Promise Pledge at dallascountypromise.org.
- Dallas County Promise is a full-tuition scholarship for seniors at participating Dallas County high schools. Make the Pledge and we'll take care of the tuition. (If you meet certain income/GPA requirements, we might even take care of the textbooks, too!) Find out more at dallascountypromise.org.
- Dallas County Promise scholars won't just get access to the programs at Dallas Community Colleges – they'll also have access to transfer opportunities with UNT Dallas and SMU (with more options to come!) so they can potentially finish a tuition-free bachelor's degree, too. Need more info? Head to dallascountypromise.org.