

CHANTEL HOBBS

Manager, Workforce Talent Activation,
Dallas County Promise

Advancing social and economic equity for women and communities of color is what Chantel considers to be her life's work. Throughout Chantel's professional career, she has lead city-wide initiatives that comprised of a network of over 300 Dallas area non-profits to address the systemic issues with a racial equity lens. She has also utilized her cross-sector experience in Corporate Recruiting, Higher-Ed Career Advising, and Workforce Development to advance the leadership and gainful employment opportunities within disenfranchised communities.

Chantel is a Dallas transplant from Detroit, MI. She graduated from Western Michigan University with a Bachelors in Business Management and received her Masters in Adult Education & Training from Argosy University in Dallas, TX.

DALLAS COUNTY
PROMISE