Skiler was born on Long Island, New York and moved to Virginia Beach at an early age. Her interest in education began while attending Angelo State University and working in the Office of Admissions. She believes that quality education transforms lives and provides a pathway for new possibilities.

Previously, Skiler worked at Texas Tech University as the Recruitment Coordinator for the College of Human Sciences. While at Texas Tech, she served as a mentor for Mentor Tech, a program that supports students throughout college. She worked as an admissions counselor for the University of North Texas at Dallas until transitioning to Dallas County Promise.

Skiler graduated from Angelo State University with a B.A. in Communication and earned her M.E.d. in Higher Education from Texas Tech University.
